

That's what they say...

"The 4 years that I spent in HIM will be most memorable for me as I got the possibility to study and socialize with people from all over the world. The friends that I made in HIM will stay my best friends for the rest of my life."

Ekaterina F., Russia

"I was given the opportunity to do my first internship in the Intercontinental hotel which is located in the exciting metropol Zurich. There I did a cross training. The knowledge and experience gained through this internship will later help me find a good management training place."

Robert B., Romania

"HIM provides a good environment for students to study:

- A different way of teaching
- The student is encouraged to study through projects and assignments
- The academic program is interactive and efficient."

Andrei C.

"Studying and spending student life in HIM was of great experience. Having met different people of different nationalities helped me to discover different cultures and make new friends. I am thankful for my destiny and I will always remember these unforgettable moments at HIM."

Kateryna G., Ukraine

"I am so happy with HIM. It's a wonderful school! Aside from studying the hotel business, you get to meet new people and learn new languages."

Antonia H., Sweden
